CHICAGO, March 28.—A frail boy in knee pants played a violin so effectively in the Juvenile Court that he gained his freedom. David Pollaches, fourteen years old, accused of steading a violin valued at $1,000, told the Judge that he loved violins so much he couldn't resist the temptation.

Then he played the instrument, and when he had finished Judge Arnold appointed a court officer his guardian, with instructions to see that his musical training was continued and that he be given outdoor recreation. It developed that the lad spent all his time practicing on a violin and had never even played ball.

Medical Corps Does Marvellous Work in Expending the Service

In two hospitals in New York and ne nearby in New Jerry there are to-day only 1,359 Amelcan soldiers, most of whom were or their way to France when discoverd to be physically unfit by the flysicians and surgeons of the medial corps which is in charge of thi work for the "Three years ago, I began to feel Port of New York. When it is conof embarkation and that every soldier who has gone to France from this port has been looked after by this corps, the roult is remarkable, Of the number mentioned in hospitals, but seventytwo are men who and of this number there are only Col. James M. Kennedy, U. S. A., hand here and its record since taking hold last Juy is an excellent one. The three largest and most active hospitals which are directly used for sick soldiers are Base Hospital No. 1, located at Can Hill Road in Willtamsbridge; the big hospital on Ellis Island and the hospital established > the present tme there are 690 patients in Bas Hospital No. 1, and of this number sixty are soldiers who have been reurned from France. At Ellis Island there are but twelve army patiens, all from France. In the hospital at Camp Merritt there are 537 patrnts who were found to be physicall unfit to embark. Every solder who leaves this port must be exemined by Col. Kennedy's men beforegoing aboard ship. This means that the thousands that have gone to Pance through this port have been given a thorough examina-

A body of troops from either Camp Upton or Camp Dix would be eximined en route or after they arrived at Camp Merritt—the "Clearing Camp." Troops coming from greater distances are examined at Hoboken before embarkation.

While at the present time it is possible for the Medical Corps to house all patients in the three hospitals named, this does not mean that the bed capacity is limited. As a matter of fact, there are twenty hospitals and hospital bases within close touch of the port which may be used at any of the port which may be used at any time by the army. At the present time the bed apacity at hand is 4,939. In all of the twenty hospitals there are but 3,332 eace of all classes, leaving a surplus of beds to the number of 1,607. All of the hospitals and hases are extraording every day and of 1,607. All of the hospitals and bases are expanding every day, and within a shor time it will be possible to accommodate more than 10,000.

The Government has studied carefully the conditions found and the obstacles surmounted by the Canadian Government aid is basing future operations along the same line. The Canadian Government planned to care for 10 per cent, of the sick and wounded and are doing so at the present time. The Port of New York will be equipped to take care of its quota at the same ratio. All of the incoming sick and wounded will be taken ing sick and wounded will be taken to Ellis Island when they begin to arrive. They will be brought to the Hattery and sent from there to the island on lighters. To-day there is a bed capacity of 400 there, but soon the patient will be moved, and it is be-lieved that when fully prepared Ellis Island will have 1,400 beds aside from

After the patients have reached a convalencent stage they will be removed from the island to Fox Hills.

S. I. where they will remain a short period before being taken to hospitals near their homes. The Goyennment has also planned that they will be placed in such hospitals near their homes that are best fitted to administer to their particular ailment.

But a very small percentage of the sick and wounded have been returned here from France. Official figures show that there were only sixty-one brought home in January and 172 in February. For the latter months of 1917 the average was about twenty-five each month. With this small number to care for, the medical officers have been unhampered in their work of expansion and will be in excellent shape to care for the great murber of patients that are expected within a short time.
